

The Best Investment I Ever Made (Prose)

Chapter 2: The Best Investment I Ever Made (Prose) · Topic 1

Key Concept

The narrator reflects on a significant decision or experience that turned out to be more valuable than any financial investment.

The piece explores themes like the value of education, relationships, personal growth, or experiences over material wealth.

Through personal reflection, the narrator shares lessons learned about what truly matters in creating a fulfilling life.

This piece encourages readers to reflect on their own 'best investments' and reconsider what they value most in life.

Quick Revision Notes

- Narrator reflects on a valuable life decision.
- It was more valuable than financial investment.
- Themes: education, relationships, personal growth.
- These matter more than material wealth.
- Narrator shares lessons through reflection.
- Lessons about what creates fulfilling life.
- Piece encourages readers' own reflection.
- It reconsiders what we value most.

Practice Questions

- 1 Discuss what the narrator considers their best investment.
- 2 Reflect on your own 'best investment' in life.
- 3 Discuss why relationships might be valuable investments.
- 4 Write a paragraph about a meaningful life experience.
- 5 Discuss the difference between financial and personal value.
- 6 Discuss the piece's main message.