

Practice and Revision - The Bangle Sellers (Poem)

Chapter 3: The Bangle Sellers (Poem) · Topic 2

Key Concept

The poem describes bangles of different colours representing different life stages - from childhood innocence to bridal joy to motherhood.

Bangle sellers are portrayed as important figures in Indian tradition, carrying symbolic items that mark important life milestones.

The poem uses rich, colourful imagery and sensory language to evoke the beauty and cultural significance of bangles in Indian society.

This poem invites readers to appreciate cultural traditions and the symbolic meanings embedded in everyday cultural items.

Quick Revision Notes

- Poem: bangle colours represent life stages.
- Childhood, bridal joy, motherhood symbolised.
- Bangle sellers: important traditional figures.
- They carry symbolic milestone items.
- Rich, colourful imagery used.
- Sensory language evokes cultural beauty.
- Poem shows cultural significance of bangles.
- Invites appreciation of cultural traditions.

Practice Questions

- 1 Discuss what bangles symbolise in the poem.
- 2 Identify colourful imagery used in the poem.
- 3 Research the tradition of bangle selling in India.
- 4 Discuss a cultural tradition from your own background.
- 5 Draw bangles representing different life stages.
- 6 Discuss the poem's celebration of tradition.