

Fundamental Rights - Part I

Chapter 17: Fundamental Rights - Part I · Topic 1

Key Concept

The Right to Equality ensures all citizens are treated equally before the law, without discrimination based on religion, race, caste, or gender.

The Right to Freedom includes freedom of speech, expression, assembly, and movement, allowing citizens to express themselves and move freely.

The Right against Exploitation prohibits practices like human trafficking and forced labour, protecting vulnerable individuals.

These rights form the foundation of individual liberty and dignity, ensuring citizens can live freely without unjust government interference.

Quick Revision Notes

- Right to Equality: equal treatment before law.
- No discrimination by religion, race, caste, gender.
- Right to Freedom: speech, expression, assembly, movement.
- This lets citizens express, move freely.
- Right against Exploitation: bans trafficking, forced labour.
- This protects vulnerable individuals.
- These rights form basis of liberty, dignity.
- They prevent unjust government interference.

Practice Questions

- 1 Discuss the Right to Equality with an example.
- 2 Discuss the Right to Freedom with an example.
- 3 Research the Right against Exploitation.
- 4 Discuss why these rights matter for citizens.
- 5 Discuss a scenario where a right might be violated.
- 6 Explain one Fundamental Right in your own words.