

How We Celebrate Festivals

Chapter 4: Our Festivals · Topic 2

Key Concept

Before a festival, people often clean and decorate their homes with lights, rangoli, or flowers, creating a festive atmosphere.

Wearing new or special clothes is a common festival tradition, making the celebration feel extra special and joyful.

Preparing and sharing special festival foods, like sweets during Diwali or biryani during Eid, is an important part of celebrating with family and friends.

Festivals are also a time for visiting family and friends, exchanging greetings and gifts, and strengthening our relationships with loved ones.

Quick Revision Notes

- Homes are decorated with lights, rangoli or flowers before festivals.
- Wearing new clothes is a common festival tradition.
- Special foods are prepared during festivals.
- Sweets during Diwali and biryani during Eid are festival foods.
- Festivals are a time to visit family and friends.
- Greetings and gifts are exchanged during festivals.
- Festivals strengthen relationships with loved ones.
- Decorating and celebrating creates a festive atmosphere.

Practice Questions

- 1 Describe how your family decorates for a festival.
- 2 Talk about a special outfit you wear during a festival.
- 3 Name a special food your family makes for a festival.
- 4 Discuss visiting family during a festival.
- 5 Make a simple decoration for a festival.
- 6 Write about your favourite festival memory.