

Reading and Understanding 'Direct-Indirect Speech (Questions and Commands)'

Chapter 2: Direct-Indirect Speech (Questions and Commands) · Topic 1

Key Concept

This lesson explores converting direct speech (exact words) into indirect speech, especially for questions and commands, helping us build stronger reading and language skills.

We answer comprehension questions to check our understanding of what we read.

Reading carefully and paying attention to detail helps us understand the lesson better.

Discussing the lesson with classmates or family deepens our understanding and helps us think more.

Quick Revision Notes

- This lesson is about converting direct speech (exact words) into indirect speech, especially for questions and commands
- We answer questions to check understanding.
- Careful reading helps us understand better.
- Discussion deepens our understanding.
- Good readers pay attention to detail.
- We can summarise what we learned.
- New words help us understand the lesson.
- Practice improves our reading skills.

Practice Questions

- 1 Read the lesson carefully.
- 2 Answer the comprehension questions.
- 3 Summarise the lesson in your own words.
- 4 Discuss the lesson with a classmate.
- 5 Find three new words and their meanings.
- 6 Practice reading the lesson aloud.