

Rules Are for Everyone

Chapter 6: Rules Are for Everyone · Topic 1

Key Concept

Rules exist in different settings, like home, school, and society, to maintain order, safety, and fairness for everyone involved.

Following rules helps prevent chaos and ensures everyone's rights and safety are respected in a community.

Rules apply equally to everyone, regardless of age, position, or status, which is essential for fairness and justice.

Understanding why rules exist and following them responsibly helps build a respectful and well-functioning society.

Quick Revision Notes

- Rules exist at home, school, society.
- They maintain order, safety, fairness.
- Following rules prevents chaos.
- It ensures rights and safety are respected.
- Rules apply equally to everyone.
- This includes regardless of age or status.
- This is essential for fairness, justice.
- Following rules builds a respectful society.

Practice Questions

- 1 List three rules you follow at home.
- 2 List three rules you follow at school.
- 3 Discuss why rules should apply to everyone equally.
- 4 Discuss what would happen without rules.
- 5 Talk about a rule you think is fair and why.
- 6 Discuss how following rules helps your community.