

Reading and Understanding 'Verbs - Action Words'

Chapter 6: Verbs - Action Words · Topic 1

Key Concept

Verbs are words that show action, like 'run', 'jump', 'eat', or 'sleep', telling us what is happening.

Every sentence needs a verb to tell us what the subject (the person, animal, or thing) is doing.

Verbs can show actions we can see, like 'walk' or 'clap', or actions we can't see, like 'think' or 'feel'.

Learning to identify verbs helps us understand sentences better and write our own clear sentences.

Quick Revision Notes

- Verbs are action words.
- Examples of verbs: run, jump, eat, sleep.
- Every sentence needs a verb.
- Verbs tell us what the subject is doing.
- Some verbs show visible actions, like 'walk'.
- Some verbs show actions we can't see, like 'think'.
- Identifying verbs helps us understand sentences.
- Verbs help us write clear sentences.

Practice Questions

- 1 Find five verbs around your classroom.
- 2 Act out three verbs, like jump, clap and run.
- 3 Make a sentence using the verb 'eat'.
- 4 Circle the verb in a simple sentence.
- 5 Draw a picture showing someone doing an action and name the verb.
- 6 List three verbs you do every morning.