

Vocabulary and Language Practice - Two Little Hands

Chapter 1: Two Little Hands · Topic 2

Key Concept

Action words for hands include 'clap', 'wave', 'hold', 'write', and 'help'. These words describe the actions our hands perform.

We can practice making sentences using these action words, like 'I clap my hands' or 'I wave to my friend'.

We can also learn words for creative hand actions, like 'draw', 'build', and 'make', which describe how our hands help us create things.

Using a variety of hand action words helps us describe everything our hands do, from helpful tasks to fun creative activities.

Quick Revision Notes

- Action words for hands include clap, wave, hold and write.
- These words describe what hands can do.
- We can make sentences using hand action words.
- 'I clap my hands' uses the action word 'clap'.
- Creative hand action words include draw, build and make.
- These words describe creative hand activities.
- A variety of action words describes many hand activities.
- Hand actions range from helpful tasks to creative fun.

Practice Questions

- 1 List four action words for hands.
- 2 Make a sentence using the word 'hold'.
- 3 Make a sentence using the word 'help'.
- 4 Act out one hand action for a friend to guess.
- 5 Make a sentence using the word 'draw' or 'build'.
- 6 List two helpful and two creative hand actions.